FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEAL BEACH POLICE TO WEAR PINK PATCH IN SUPPORT OF BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

Seal Beach, CA – The Seal Beach Police Department will continue to wear a special pink patch to show support for Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

In 2013, the Seal Beach Police Department created the nation's first pink police patch to help show support for breast cancer awareness month. Since then, over 500 law enforcement agencies have joined us in supporting this worthy cause by creating and wearing their own pink patches.

Throughout the month of October, you will see the men and women of the Seal Beach Police Department displaying pink patches on their uniforms in support of those we have lost, survivors, and those who are still fighting.

The patches are available for sale to the public for $10 each. Proceeds from the sale of patches will be donated to the National Law Enforcement Cancer Support Foundation (<http://lawenforcementcancer.org/>).

For more information about the Seal Beach Police League, and to learn how the Seal Beach Police Department is supporting Breast Cancer Awareness Month please visit: <https://sealbeachpoliceleague.com/>. To purchase a patch, visit <https://sealbeachpoliceleague.com/shop-%26-awards-banquet-tix/ols/categories/pink-patch> or stop by the Seal Beach Police Department lobby located at 911 Seal Beach Boulevard Monday-Friday 9:00am-5:30pm.
